

Shauna Deckert

Shauna is a Montana native, growing up in Eastern Montana, she came to Bozeman to attend college in the early 90's and never left. She started her career in Banking about 25 years ago and for the past 7 years has worked at Stockman Bank as a Commercial Lender. Shauna is very involved in the Bozeman Area Chamber of Commerce and has volunteered with them in various capacities since 2009 and is now a Green Coat Ambassador. She has also been a member of the Gallatin Empire Lions club since 2016. Shauna loves spending time working in her yard and hanging out with her two dogs, Kenai (10 yr old German Shepherd) & Jovie (3 yr old HOV alum), and two cats Cricket and Scooter (12 yr old).