

Bellissima

10 Years old, Girl

I love getting pet on the cheeks and will come rub up on you if you are not giving me enough attention. I am full of personality and sometimes likes alone time. I would do best with a gentle, quiet older family and can live with some cats. Dogs make me feel stressed and I do not want to share a home with them.

YoYo

2 month old kitten, Girl

I am an active kitten who will need lots of love and playtime! I would be excited to meet kids and other animal friends. My perfect day would include lots of playtime, toys, naps and lots of snacks. I need a patient family who will teacher me how to use the litterbox and where I can explore around the house and outside.

Winter

14 ½ Years old, Girl

I am a very loving girl and will rub my head against your legs just to let you know I love you. I love warm places and soft pillows if you're not around and I would love cuddle next to you in bed at night! I am a very calm and friendly cat who also likes to chase around toys once in a while.

Dude

14 Years old, Boy

Dude is a sweet and relaxed kitty who like children and other cats. Dogs make him feel scared so he doesn't want to live with any doggie friends. His perfect day would include lots of pets and curling up in a lap for a good movie or book.

Brad Pit

1 year 9 months, Boy

I love playing fetch and I know basic commands, like “sit” and “shake.” I love squeaky toys the best, but I can use almost anything as something to play with. I am very outgoing and I like a lot of people. I need lots of exercise and training—I am a very active and smart dog! If you want to cuddle, I am going to climb right up into your lap!

Shalom

8 years, Boy

I can make a lot of noises with my vocal chords and love to sing songs. I am looking for an older couple who will take me on long walks some days and enjoy long lazy days on others. I am house-trained and have lived with cats and dogs before. I have long fur, so I need someone who will brush my fur every once and a while!

Emma

7 years old, Girl

I am a very energetic young lady—I would love to spend all my free time swimming, running, going for rides or playing fetch! I also love snuggling under blankets and I’ll let you know if you are not giving me enough love and pets. I like kids but I would do better with your undivided attention—so I do not want to live with other cats and dogs. I need a family who will teach me obedience and tricks using lots of love and treats.
